The Beautiful and Sexy Women of Shalom

A Song Written + dedicated to my Shalom Sisters.

"Peace Be With You"; Shalom

Let me tell you what my Father's done for me.
Let me tell you of His love.
Let me tell you what my Father's done for me.
He's given me peace from above....
Peace from above.

A peace that lingers on, through tempest and through storm.
a peace embedded in my soul.
a peace that always keeps me safe and warm.
a peace, that can make me whole... can make me whole.

And, now I wish for you this peace from above.
I wish for you God's love.
May we share this love throughout the year
And have a house of peace here...
Of peace here.

Peace be with you. Shalom. Shalom.
Peace be with you. Shalom.
Peace be with you, My sisters.
Shalom. Shalom.

To this place upon the hill,
I come not knowing what for.
Unable to comprehend; the things that are in store... I've come to where I am on faith, And I come many miles from home, I know now I have nothing to fear, for now I have found Shalom.

A Portrait

An innocent freshman unaware of what lies... ahead.

Part of initiation
all the freshman had to write what Shalom
meant to them.
So the poems contained in this album are the originals.

The minute we walk on campus / you could tell we were the sexy women some real big spenders, good lookin so refined wouldn't you like to know what's going on in our mind. So let us get right to the point.
We don't pop our cork for any hall but yours.
Hey Stewert Manor spend a little time with Shalom.

Suzy
Curtis

Marike & Beth / Sally & Tawyna / Debbie & Suzette / Sue Ko & Karen

Then we all went to seranade our brother house St. Manor.

But little did the freshman Shalomies Know what would happen at ... 3:00 am.

The night of formal initiation was a very special one. Secret Sisters were announced as they presented each freshman with a green carnation symbolizing their offical membership of Shalom.

IN A HALL, THERE IS A HOME
WHEN BOYS CALL THEY CALL SHALOM
WE ARE ALL SISTERS WITH HOPES AND DREAMS
BEAUTIFUL SEXY WOMEN AND THEIR FANNY SCHEMES
SOME LADIES ARE CRAZY SOME ARE KIND
SOME LADIES ARE LAZY SOME ~~ARE~~ YOU CANT FIND
Blah, blah, blah ~~there~~ ever we go
Blah, blah, blah our love we'll show
So this is ~~Lori's~~ poem you see
And I'm glad to be in Shalom with thee

SHALOM

The fun and the friendships
I hope to gain,
Are here at Shalom
For me to attain.

The warmth and the kindness
and sisterly love,
Will bring us together
With help from above.

Our discussion will vary
From books to romance,
We'll have fun together
Whether planned or by chance.

The craziness of Shalom
Is all too evident,
But that's needless to say,
Since Katies' our President.

Tammy White

Shalom means we are Sisters
Sharing our joys and our Hopes Living together in an Air
Of friendship and of Love
Shalom is the Organ
Used to soothe our hearts & Minds

The Shalom Dilemma

The Shalom Dilemma so far it seems, is to keep from gaining that dreaded fifteen.

Our sisters they chase us with brownies, and cake, and all other good things they're compelled to make.

She fight and refuse them, and pray for strength But to stuff us with goodies, they'll go to great length.

So here I sit, obesity bound, hoping and praying to lose just one pound.

What Shalom means to me.

Shalom is my new found family and A place full of love, hope, and place.
Love from my sisters, Hope for the futu
A new found Place within myself.

Shalom is a place where everyone cares.
A place of happy, smiling faces and cheery
A place of giving and sharing of oneself.
Friendships that begin here and last for Shalom is my new home that I love and always remember wherever I go, whatever A time in my life that will be full of happy memories that I will always ke deep in my heart.

Smile Shalom, I Love You!

Shalom, you're home away from home.
So many girls have come and gone; but you still remain, Shalom.
You see laughter and tears,
happiness and woes;
But through the years
you promise to be, Shalom.
Shalom, we sing your song,
and we get along;
And though we're unfaithful
to you Shalom,
You still remain strong.
So as I've said,
You are our home
We will always remember you as the best house.
Shalom.

Here we have gathered from places far and near,
A part of Shalom till the end of the year.
Some of us here for fellowship and fun,
Others, for that husband on the run.
The ring of the phone and we all are prone,
Ready to run in hopes it's our hon'.
But deep down inside, there's a love
we can't hide.
Be it sharing in prayer, or a date
that's a dare.
When we laugh or we play, no matter what time of day.
We are unique and well known, as we are the sexy women of SHALOM!

... and Yorkshire

After alot of hard work Yorkshire arrived and with the evenings close left many wonderful memories...

Part of the evenings activities was for each table to create their own version of "'Twas the night..."

By: Cindi Huskey, Lora Rizzo, Byrce Wilson, + Steve Davis

'Twas the night before Xmas and all through Shalom not a creature was surfing for they all were at home. Some went to Florida and some went to maine but none went to Spain. Still others to Canada. Saint Nick came to these places in various ways, but to the west coast he came by surf instead of by sleigh.

By: Pam Gamble, Dwight Burford Feron Persall + Katie Everett & Trudy/Doug Harms

'Twas the night of Yorkshire and all through the Inn sat beautiful women with their handsome young men. Side by side their faces sitting in their places drinking drink + stuffing

By: Jeannine Muir Steve Quelman, Lori meyer, Steve Palmer, Susie Curtis, Barry Eppling

'Twas the night before Xmas and all down the lane, not a creature was stiring they all were in sane. I and mama in our coats, tied sleeve, were trying to recover from our mental disease. When outside our cell, Thought we'd heard an alarm, It turned out to be a sleigh bell.

By: Stacey Weiss, Ray Biller, Elaine Brant, Dave may, Sue Cochran, her date, Pam Chapman, and Bob Oorsler

'Twas the day before Hannaka and all thro the hut It was the cleaning womans day off. All was covered with smut. The convicts were hung from the galls with glee It was Xmas so they were all lit up like a tree But up on the prison roof we heard such a clatter →

It was Santa and reindeer who dropped down a ladder. Just as the first Xmas bells were rung we realized that Santa the convict had sprung. Now one and all were happy as could be. Merry Xmas to all at last we are free!

And now the winning one!

By: Ann Culek, Rick Saal, Maridee Neisen & Dawg, John Swalls, Mick Lathro

'Twas the night before Xmas & across the equator not a Kangaroo stirred but we'll catch him later. The young little Joey hopped out of the pouch but some thing below him made him say "ooch"! He looked down below him & guess what he saw a beautiful present from his furry grandma. "A Koak"! he cried. All wrapped in fir paper. The hot north wind blew beginning the caper. A wombar joined in and with them did play. What a joyous Xmas they had t day. And what of the 'roo we said we'd catch later, He took a wrong turn and turned up in Albequreque. And now you may ask why this doesn't rhyme. We simply don't have enough time

The close of the year arrived and so did the many good bye's.

... And shalom's Formal at Tiffany's Attic in K.City... the final picnic at nine eagles... Karen Shannon roasted os all and boy did we get burned!! The final wills of all were read... And a few songs...

by Cindi Husted, Mickey Lathrop & Lora Rizzo

WE'RE DREAMING OF A BIKINI SUMMER

We're dreaming of a bikini summer,
Just like the ones we used to know But we're not going sunning 'til we lose this "freshman fifteen" so our flabby legs won't show!

We're dreaming of a bikini summer,
With every "big S" treat we eat.
Although shalom is a Great house and we all love our H.P.
To be thin would be super-neat!

Song to the tune of: were Dreaming of a white Xmas

BEAUTIFUL AND SEXY WOMEN

Beautiful and Sexy women are in the house of Shalom and if you ever saw it you would know why we call it home.

All of us are just fantastic talented one and all And just to look at us would tell you why we're all in one hall.

When Katie picked us all herself
She knew it was right
And throughout this whole year there hasn't been a fight.

Now all of us are happy
And we all shout with glee
Katie Everett from Texas
We're glad you were our H.P!

Song to the tune: Rudolph the redhosed reindeer

FINALS WEEK

Finals week, finals week
Drudgery on the way
What a drag it is to stay in your room all day!

Hey!

Finals week, finals week
We'll be glad when you're done then we can go to our homes and have some summer fun!!

Song to the tune: Jingle Bells

Shalom

Shalom, Shalom, Shalom
The greatest word known
No matter how close
No matter how Far We'll still be a part of Shalom.

Shalom, Shalom, Shalom
Are our Friends most dear
Sharing, Caring, Understanding Praying too, with God,
And, walking where he has trod.

Shalom, Shalom, Shalom
We'll always remember you
To those who have made it special
And to those who start anew
May we carry on & on Shalom, Shalom, Shalom!

Congratulations

... And now my poem for Shalom ...

I look around and see the end
A year has passed,
a year of friends
I look ahead and see strange faces Different smiles and different places
I look at my self and inside Ive known
my life has changed,
my mind has gro
Tomorrow comes quick and time goes by You must grab hold of t or at least you m Experiences are waiti and the years will
But before I go, I look bac
Good-b

May the remaining pages be filled with the memories of next year
And may all future scrapbooks contain only "scraps" of the memories of fun and laughter
But within our hearts ~~for~~ever to be the memories of the love that is...

Shalom.
